SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading Isaiah 55:6-9
 Our first reading is a great invitation: the door of faith is always open—at least on God's side!

Second reading Philippians 1:20-24, 27
 St Paul has a robust and entirely believable desire to be "with Christ"—and yet, he is called now to bring Christ to others. It does place him in a dilemma. Probably our desire to be with Christ after death is not so strong...and yet, why not?

Gospel Matthew 20:1-16
 It must be said that this reading would not work now or even in the past as a labour relations strategy. As theology, it works really well...as long as we recall that we, the Gentiles, are the latest arrival and still we get the same!

Congratulations to Catherine Hegarty, Luka Mrksic and Patricia Mrksic who were baptised in this Church recently.

Sincere sympathies to the family, neighbours and friends of Jimmy Magee (Lakelands Lawn Drive) whose funeral took place during the week

Thank You

Crosscare would like to thank all who gave so generously to their recent collection. It amounted to €3,015.
