SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The book of Jonah was written when society tended to be closed to non-Israelites. This short story has a surprise: an unwilling Jewish prophet preaches with spectacular success to people outside the faith. Two changes follow.

Second reading 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

This very short reading is provocative. If all we say about Jesus is true, if we really believe the alternative vision of the Gospel, what difference could it, or would it or should it make?

Gospel Mark 1:14-20

Every so often, we need to touch base with the important people and values in our lives. In today's gospel we touch base with the founding proclamation of Jesus. All sorts of question arise. What did he mean by "believe"? by "good news"? And most important, by "repent"?

Tuesday 23rd and Wednesday 24th: Reflection by a Carmelite Sister
Thursday 25th: Rev Martin Kilmurray O.Carm, Prior, Gort Muire Carmelite Community

Please see the following advice from the Dublin Diocesan Liturgical Resource Centre

Given the increase in the numbers of people affected by influenza in recent weeks, it is opportune to remind ourselves of sensible practices. It is good to remember that those with 'flu symptoms are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend Mass.

Those who are confined to home when ill can honour the Lord's Day by praying along with the Mass broadcast by Parish Radio, on Parish webcams (live from the Pro Cathedral via www.dublindiocese.ie), on Sunday Morning by RTE Radio on Long Wave 252 Khz (RTE1 television often broadcast Mass on Sunday mornings also).

If some parishioners feel uncomfortable about shaking hands at the Sign of Peace, they are very welcome to wish others the Peace of Christ without hand contact (with a smile or a bow).

Sincere sympathies to Mary (Mai) Carolan (South Avenue), Alfred (Alfie) Scarff (Lakelands Drive) and James (Jim) Moylan (Upper Kilmacud Road) whose funerals took place during the week.

The next meeting of the Active Retirement will take place on Monday 22nd January at 2.15 p.m. in the Parish Centre. New Members welcome.
