SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First Reading Acts 3:13-15, 17-19
What difference does believing in the resurrection mean? Peter expounds Christian faith with an eye to the consequence.

Second Reading 1 John 2:1-5
As we hear this passage, it may help to remember that there is only one commandment in the Gospels and letters of John: to love! We are commanded to "do" what we most need and want.

Gospel Luke 24:35-48
The gospel today invites us to acknowledge our own experience of faith and to become bearers of the good news in our time. The last line of the Gospel (v. 48) puts it up to us all.

Invite from UCD

UCD would like to invite one and all to come and join us at our new
'Intergenerational Jigsaw Club'.

In particular we would like to invite members of the parish's retired population to join us on Friday afternoons, make jigsaws and chat with new friends.

Every Friday from Friday April 20th
2.30pm - 4.30pm
The UCD O'Brien Centre for Science, Belfield.

We will meet you at the main entrance to the O'Brien Centre for Science at 2.30pm and go to room ALE H1.49.

Drop in for as little or as long as you like!

Today is Share Sunday, the Archbishop thanks all those who support this important collection.

"Share provides support services to our parish communities in child safeguarding, education and schools, repairs to buildings, prudent financial management, human resources and training people to work in evangelisation and catechesis. Thank you for supporting the Share collection and I appeal to you to continue to give generously to Share, the second collection, each Sunday. Your help is invaluable in building the parish of the future". - Archbishop Diarmuid Martin. Copies of the SHARE Newsletter are at the doors of the Church.
