The Feast of St Peter and St Paul. The tradition of celebrating the solemnities of both Saint Peter and Saint Paul on the same day (29 June) is of ancient origin. Together, the two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

This year the feast is celebrated on Sunday 30 June in the Roman Catholic church

'You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church' Jesus renames Simon to Peter from petros, the masculine Greek word for rock. It was not used as the name of a person at the time. Petra, its feminine form, also translated as 'rock', is a large, immovable rock. In spite of Peter's shortcomings, Jesus acknowledges his faith and his role as the leader and spokesperson for the disciples.

Hospitality – this weekend

We warmly welcome you to come and join us for a cuppa after 6pm Mass on Saturday and after 11.30am Mass Sunday in the Parish Centre. Come along and chat to friends old and new. All welcome.

St Peter's Pence

It is an offering that may be small, but is of great symbolic value:

It expresses the sense of belonging to the Church and love and trust for the Holy Father.

It is a tangible sign of communion with Him, as Peter's Successor, and also of attention to the needs of the most disadvantaged, for whom the Pope always cares.

The second collection today will be taken up for St Peter's Pence.

Pray for the family & friends of Connell Cunningham (Merville Avenue) whose funeral Mass took place here this week.

'I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven'

This weekend we celebrate the ancient feast of Saints Peter and Paul – two giants of our faith on whose shoulders we stand. Both were faithful and unstinting in their mission and are an example to us as we strive to follow Jesus Christ.

In the First Reading, we hear how the newly appointed king, Herod Agrippa, begins to persecute the Christian community in Jerusalem. But while Peter is in prison, an angel of the Lord leads him to safety.

The Psalm is a song of praise, and in particular one of thanksgiving for the psalmist's own deliverance.

In the Second Reading, Paul approaches the end of his life and looks back on his ministry with a grateful heart. He recalls how God supported him in his difficult mission and is confident that God will also bring him to the safety of the kingdom.

The Gospel tells of Peter identifying Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus rewards Peter for his insight by conferring on him the grace of leadership, a unique position in the community of Jesus.

This week, let us think of our role in the mission of the Church, not forgetting to pray for those who are persecuted for living out their faith

God our Father, today you give us the joy of celebrating the feast of the apostles Peter and Paul. Through them your Church first received the faith. Keep us true to their teaching. Old Opening Prayer

Summer Dues

Please support your priests through the Summer Dues collection.

The generosity that people show towards their priests is indispensable.

Please play your part, too, in a renewed and active involvement of all parishioners as together we sow seeds for a future harvest, trusting always in God's plans for us

Envelopes are available at the entrances to the Church. Thank you for your support.
